The House Wife.

The Silver bill has passed, the Sacramento flood is subsiding, and a lull in politics induces us to take up the above subject. We feel more inclined thereto after listening, last evening, to a very-entertaining discourse by Rev. Mr. Gray, upon housekeeping. The speaker thought there was moral power in a housewife's duties, and we know that he was right. There is moral power in every relation existing between husband and wife, or man and man.

We have, during a short and interesting career of single blessedness, noted two classes of homes, which illustrate the power alluded to. We have seen a certain class of men who always wanted you to go home with them. "Come over and take dinner with me," said they, "I can promise you something good to eat, and my wife will be glad to see you." Now that man knew that his good wife was at that very moment bustling about in her neat household, working and studying how she could add a charm to his home, or a pleasure to his daily fare. He knew that his helpmate would keep the hearth stones warm, and greet his friends at any time with smiling good nature. Hence, he wanted you to go home with him, and why? Because that was the best place to which he could take you. These two would often go out into the world of art and letters for brief seasons of enjoyment, but they were always glad to regain their own little world at home, where the affairs of love were administered, and the throne acknowledged a queen whose daily care was the comfort and care of her loyal subject. We don't know whether a wife like that has any power, but have always thought we would like to serve under such a government.

Now, there is another class, and they would always ask you home with them, but their wife is not very well. At other times they would be glad to have you, but they are not sure about your fare. These men are never sure of good dinners unless on state occasions, but are reasonably certain of lectures all the time. Reproaches are more plentiful than smiles with them, and they are taught plainly and unmistakably that home life was never calculated for pleasure, but purely for a satisfaction of bodily wants. To derive pleasure from eating or drinking is unworthy of a high minded man, according to these housewives, and the poor man who has inherited these tastes through generations goes away from home to gratify them. This may sound like a masculine theory, but we counsel the house wife to try the comparative effect of very good, and very bad household treatment upon her spouse, and note the results.

We conclude this suggestion by concurring with Mr. Gray, that the housewives have more power than all of the men to whom they minister, and we believe that a well cooked mutton chop is more powerful than all the tears and curtain lectures which were ever shed.

Mighels, of the Appeal, a sensitive and chivalrous son of wit, has been shaking his pepperbox—formidable weapon—at Prof. Gunning again. It is whispered that Gunning called Mighels a horse thief, and hazarded the belief that he was bought with British gold, whereupon the editor of the Morning Appeal ($8 per year in advance) tosses the mark, scoffs at the allegation and defies the allegator, by admitting the facts pleaded and triumphantly asserting that proof can not be produced. Gunning can't hold that fort for a minute. His position is all wrong, for he stands upon the ideal ground that an inquisition in regard to a few horses can hurt a Nevada editor, which it can't nor never could.

The Omaha Herald thinks that another year of development will make the Black Hills equal to the Comstock. Claims are being settled, it says. Yes, that's so; the claims can no longer be jumped, but the Indians will jump the claimers which is most as bad.

A majority of the Wisconsin Legislature does not believe there is a hell, and the people, after noting their acts, hope they may be in error.

Duncan, the celebrated forger, defaulter, and fugitive from justice, in San Francisco, has at last been captured at 509 Kearny street, and the papers are joyful over the fact. Looks to us as though the detectives had too good a thing on Duncan to let him get entirely away, and that the newspaper outcry produced his capture finally. Duncan with his son-in-law, B. F. LeWarne, the Cashier of the Pioneer Land and Loan Bank, was defaulter to the little sum of $1,235, 401.35. The total number of victims is 2468, of whom the heaviest losers were Capt. Wilson $60,000, and Mrs. Parsons $19,200.

Mrs. Van Cott says that the hard times have affected evangelists, as well as other people, as they don't get any salaries. She says she doesn't get many presents, and never had a free railroad ticket or minister's half-ticket offered her in her life.—Exchange.

Ah ha! Mrs. Van is at last just where we want her—at home. And the first man who gives her a ticket to get away on ought to be forced to listen to her lectures. By the way, Cott, dear, you forgot to say why "evangelists" shouldn't be affected.

Joe Duncan, the notorious fugitive banker, who has given the police more trouble than any other criminal since the early days of the city, and who has been the cause of more newspaper comments than any other individual of purely local celebrity, was captured Sunday morning shortly after midnight by Captain Lees, the Chief of a squad of trusted officers.—S. F. Chronicle.

Duncan is safely locked up out of harm's way, and it is to be hoped that even and exact justice may be meted out to him.

Otto Greenhood of Carson is having considerable trouble because somebody won't let him say that he was the first translator of something of no importance. The translator, though past Boyhood, is certainly yet in his Greenhood, or he would see this matter as we do. He certainly Otto, anyhow.

DEXTER, (Me.) February 23.—Last evening J. W. Barron, Treasurer of the Dexter Savings Bank, not returning home, search was made for him, and he was found locked in the vault, handcuffed, gagged and with a rope around his neck. He was senseless, and died this morning. He had several bad wounds on the forehead. The robbers obtained less than $100, and it is supposed they murdered the Treasurer because he would not open the safe.

The present overflow of the low lands along the Sacramento river is more disastrous than that of 1861 and 1862. It is almost impossible at the present time to correctly estimate the amount of the damage done. The districts inundated embrace some of the most fertile and productive portions of California. These lands comprise some 100,000 acres, and are covered by several feet of water. Steamers and sail vessels with ease pass over this large inundated tract.

LONDON, February 23.—A well-informed Vienna correspondent affirms that Sefvet Pasha still hesitates to sign General Ignatius's conditions defining the eastern and southern limits of Bulgaria, and says the conditions also, despite the denial of the Agence Russe, prescribe the expulsion, practically, of the entire Mussulman population.

The Eastern situation is but little changed. The London Times editorially says it considers the situation very unsatisfactory. Europe is armed to the teeth, and is increasing its armament day by day.

There is a bone to be picked between the Bodie Standard and the Carson Appeal. It is a soup bone, the latter paper having said that a soup house was to be erected in Bodie.

A mattress caught fire in one of the cells of the Eureka jail, Feb. 21st, and nearly roasted the prisoner out before the flames were extinguished.

John Runk, the murderer of police officer Coots of San Francisco will be hanged for that crime in that city Friday, March 29.

The damage done by the late floods in Sutter county, California, is estimated at more than $1,000,000.

NEW COMERS.—Tandy & Cook respectfully inform the citizens of Reno that they have leased the Baden photograph gallery for a short time, and will be pleased to receive the same. They will be continuing to give first class pictures of themselves. We guarantee our work to be equal in tone, and finish to that produced at the first galleries of San Francisco. We will remain in Reno a few weeks, and feel confident that we will satisfy all who may favor us with their patronage during that time. Respectfully, Tandy & Cook.

CHOATE'S MANUSCRIPT.—Mr. Whipple says that on one occasion when Rufus Choate had lost a case which there was every reason for supposing he would win, he met the great lawyer, and mentioned the case, remarking that he feared he would be very much disturbed by it. Choate replied: "When I have finished a case, I dismiss it from my mind." And suddenly lifting up his hands and spreading them outward said, "I should go mad—if I did not. By the way, have you heard anything about the new life of Shelley that somebody is writing?" A sudden change of subject, that proved Mr. Choate's sincerity of endeavor in fleeing from the disagreeable. Mr. Whipple also tells a story of Choate's sending a letter of advice to Daniel Webster upon some legal case. Webster tried in vain to decipher it. At last, flinging it down, he exclaimed: "This fellow advises me what to do and I can't read a single word of his damnable hieroglyphics."

A ragged, shivering, middle-aged man called at a house on Sibley street and asked for food, but the lady of the house called out "Why don't you work for your food?" "I would if I knew where I could find work," he promptly replied. "There's a place down town where you can saw wood and earn your dinner," she continued. That seemed to stick him for half a minute, but he finally said with great solemnity, "Madam, let me state a parallel case. There is a place in heaven for you, but you don't want to die till you are driven right to it." She pondered over his philosophy for a few seconds and then called to the cook to pass out half a loaf of bread and some meat.—Detroit Free Press.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

BIBLICAL.

Some Hard Hits Upon Our Local Gospel Sharps.

Last evening Rev. Mr. Gray at the Methodist Church, undertook to show his listeners how easily they might not know all of the scriptures, in order to induce them to join the Methodist Bible Class.

He recalled the memorable Democratic effort before the Lyceum, where an earnest advocate prayed his hearers to "render unto Peter the things which are Peter's."

In confidence the minister then disclosed the fact that he had once quoted his text from "Saint Acts" and no one seemed to realize the mistake, although Tom Hymer, Wm. Duck and a Gazette reporter occupied front seats.

Passing from this he recalled the effort of a learned theologian, who read "from the Pistols of General Paul," thereby earning the title of General Paul for all time.

We were also reminded of a lapsus lingua which befell a colored brother in the announcement of his theme. Said he, "My frens, I shall deliver to you to-night my tex fum de fust 'pistle' of Paul to de Canadians." And we agree with Mr. Gray that so long as such mistakes occur, Bible classes should be kept up.

MISS EMERY'S DEPARTMENT.—In company with another gentleman this morning we visited Miss Emery's Department of the Public Schools. Some 45 bright boys and girls were quietly engaged in study. A class in arithmetic was called, and gave evidence of having satisfactorily prepared their lesson. We closely noted the lady's manner of conducting her class recitation, and the perfect order she maintained over those at their seats. We have not been in any school wherein there is better order kept. This we had expected, however, since Miss Emery has established such a reputation.

We were, therefore, more particularly concerned as to the thoroughness of the instruction which she imparts; whether she maintains excellent discipline at the expense of that other requisite—good lessons properly taught. It is our pleasure to state that those bright little fellows clearly answered her questions, and recited every exaction in a manner which showed that they understood what they were talking about. It is very frequently the case that public schools teachers grow careless and allow their pupils to skim along over their studies without ever really grasping or comprehending the subject taught.

Parents learn that little John and Mary have been transferred to a higher apartment, and presuming that of course their children know what they have studied, that they are succeeding admirably, and all because of what they believe to be due to the brightness of their children and the excellence of the teacher. This very often results from the criminal neglect of the teacher. But in Miss Emery the trustees and parents have a fine instructor. She is doing successful and satisfactory work, and we do not hesitate to give her proper credit therefore.

NARROW ESCAPE.—Yesterday evening, while Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Loomis were temporarily absent from their residence in the western addition, the two little children left at the house upset a coal oil lamp which was sitting on the table in the front room. The lamp fell on the floor and broke into numerous pieces and the spill coal oil ignited. The little fellows spread the news at once. But for the fact that the flames were discovered by Mr. James O'Neil and another gentleman who was passing at the time, the residence of Mr. Loomis would have been burned to the ground. These gentlemen rushed into the house, and by promptly smothering the flames with bed clothing, prevented a serious conflagration.

Commercial Row is in a sorry plight. Cannot the property holders and business men along that street club together and raise a sum of money or its equivalent, sufficient to put this street in a decent condition? We have abundance of dirt and gravel near town. There are men out of employment who would work cheap. The roads in a day or two will be in the condition for hauling dirt, etc. When is there a better time than when the necessity of the case urges to action?

NOTINGS.

The blues were prevalent yesterday gloomy weather.

Frank C. Dickinson departed for his home on the banks of the raging Winnemucca yesterday.

Anybody who wants to pay his subscription will not be denied admission to this office.

How about that amateur entertainment for the benefit of Washoe No. 2?

The Gazette has lectured four men into the sidewalk notion.

Chapin's greenhouse will be an attractive resort for the ladies during the Summer.

A man without aspirations won't have to go dry much longer. That's one beautiful thing about election times.

Rev. T. J. Arnold closed his labors in the Baptist Church last evening.

The old Creal furnace will be remodeled for a thorough test of the new process.

Competent judges believe the Scheively process will work Pyramid ores.

There was $467,912 09 from the bonanzas Saturday night.

Go to Hagerman's and get some of that East India Chutnee. The best meat sauce ever built.

Ah Sam arrived in Reno Saturday. He was covered with snow. He was dead. He was the Rocklin murderer.

This warm, Spring weather is fast drying the mud in the roads and streets. The thermometer marked 70 degrees to day, and as there was no wind, everyone received full benefits of the warm sunshine. There is also no excitement in town, so all have the best excuse for the manifestation of Spring fever.

E. Meyer has just received a large invoice of cigars.

The four boys who were on trial Saturday afternoon before Justice Richardson for burglary were held to appear before the next Grand Jury, which meets in April.

Railroad notables are hovering around. Look out for hen-roosts.

Mr. John Sunderland has just received a late and most stylish lot of ladies' shoes.

The Silver bill has passed and Duncan has been captured. Now, what remains for our gentlemen friends but to try Cohn & Isaacs for a new suit of clothes, a paper collar, or a big handkerchief?

This style of weather will bring those from the outlying country into town, and improved times will be felt.

A new social club called the "Hill-side" has been organized. The first soiree was given last Saturday evening.

We regret to state that Mr. Harry Noyes is very near death's door. There is now no hopes of his recovery.

S. Arnestine of Wadsworth is in town to day.

Dr. Sheets has gone over to pull Bodie's teeth.

Lumber of all kinds at Bragg & Co's.

Notice and statement on motion for new trial was filed and recorded on Saturday by counsel for plaintiff in the Thompson-Powning libel suit.

Musical alias Rehearsal next Friday evening at the Episcopal Seminary.

PERSONAL.—Col. W. H. L. Barnes and H. S. Brown of San Francisco, are in attendance before the District Court, engaged as counsel in the C. P. R. R. case with A. J. Bunting and M. Harrison. Hon. W. F. Stewart of Virginia City, C. C. Stevenson of Gold Hill, J. A. Filmore, Superintendent of the Oregon and Sacramento Division, and Sacramento and Truckee Division of the C. P. R. R., and Frank Free, Superintendent of the Truckee Division of the C. P. are in town to day.

WADSWORTH.—From S. Arnestine of Wadsworth, we learn that there is no teaming at present between that point and Belleville owing to the cessation of work at the Northern Belle.

The Gladding brothers of Wadsworth, will put their teams at work between Carson and Bodie during the winter, and Mr. Arnestine in common with all other inhabitants of Wadsworth hopes for a renewal of the old times in the Spring.

PERSONAL.—Prof. W. Frank Stewart honored us with a visit to-day, and is looking young again. He will tarry with us two or three days on his way to Tuolumne, where he has considerable property which we hope may prove valuable.

LYCEUM.

To-morrow evening the Silver bill will be considered in Committee of the Whole in the Reno Lyceum.

This question is one of special importance and should be carefully and thoroughly discussed. Should the evening be a pleasant one, the attendance of visitors will be large. We trust that those who contemplate speaking on this important mootable question will give the subject their best thoughts, that those who come to listen shall not be disappointed, and the speakers may derive that profit sought in such discussion. The Mormon question will lay over one week.

The case of Bunting et. al. vs. C. P. R. R. is still on trial in the District Court. About a dozen witnesses for the plaintiff's have thus far been examined. Some twenty more yet remain to testify. On behalf of the railroad company there are not less than ten or fifteen. Thus it will be seen with the testimony, law and argument of the four attorneys, that this case will probably consume this week's session of Court. Some one hundred spectators fill the space back of the railing.

One would scarcely believe that this time last year there was fine sleighing in Reno.

CARD OF THANKS.

We, the undersigned, wish to tender our thanks to Mr. J. A. Brunsley, State Agent and Mr. James H. Marshall, City Agent of the Home Mutual Fire Insurance Company of San Francisco, for the highly satisfactory and unprecedented manner in which the representatives of the above named Company have settled their portion of the loss which we sustained at the late fire on Fribble's corner. We take great pleasure in recommending the Home Mutual Insurance Company to the insuring public for honest, square, and high-toned dealing.

[Carson Appeal, Jan. 26, 1878.]

INSURE in the Home Mutual. If your property is destroyed by fire and you are fortunate enough to hold one of our policies, your money is ready and paid when you most need it. No litigation or trouble.

ALLEN C. BRAUN, Agent.

Reno, Jan. 29, 1878-tf

ORE COMING.—J. D. Shaw has gone to Cottonwood to bring in some ore from the McClelland mine for sample reduction by the Schively furnace. If this furnace proves what its inventors claim for it, Washoe county will raise a little mining excitement of her own.

Particular attention is called to the Sheriff's description of Ah Chouey the Chinaman who committed murder and arson a month or more ago, in Reno. He is the Celestial that is now causing Breen and Cowie earthly trouble.

Although Lake Tahoe has raised about one foot by reason of the late snow and rain, the Truckee has increased her volume of water only to a slight extent.

The Adah Richmond troupe will be here next Wednesday evening and give a performance at Smith's Academy of music.

Cowie and Breen take a benefit to-day in Virginia City. Storey county has added her name to the "Reform" list.

Nels Hammond this morning received a new sleigh. Now we know that it won't snow.

F. V. Drake, District Attorney of Storey county, was in town yesterday. Ah Chouey business, we presume.

The V. & T. boys give their annual ball the 14th prox. in Carson.

The National Gold Medal was awarded to Bradley & Rulofson for the best photographs in the United States, and the Vienna Medal for the best in the world.

RATHER TOO HIGH TONED.—The Washington correspondent of the Hartford Times says that the maddest man in town is the new Samoan Ambassador, who was grossly insulted at a barber shop connected with one of the leading hotels in this city a few days since. The representative of the Samoan Islands has been here for some weeks on some kind of diplomatic business for the Samoan Islands and has been a very frequent visitor to the State Department. He has a very dark skin, and although otherwise he looks like an Indian, he is much darker. Anyone not acquainted with him would take him for a negro, as he especially favors the French negroes who come here from time to time from New Orleans, to see John Sherman about treasury matters down there. Mr. Ambassador (I can't think of his name now), it appears, went into the barber shop, where he was known, and was about being shaved, when several, who were undergoing the same operation, supposing him to be a colored man, got on their dignity and loudly refused to allow the operation on themselves to proceed further until the supposed colored brother was out of the barber shop. The barber who was working on the face of the Ambassador, not explaining why proceeded with the operation of soaping the face of his customer whereupon the excited gentlemen—one an army officer, another a Western Mail carrier and another a gentleman who was badly mixed up in whisky frauds a couple of years ago—rose and protested. They said that "if they had come to a d—d nigger barber-shop they wanted to know it, and pretty quick." This attracted the attention of the Ambassador, who jumped up and handed his cards around, adding that he was not a negro, although a colored man. Mutual explanations and apologies followed, which were sealed and accepted at the bar-room soon afterwards, though the Ambassador is still mad over it.

During a recent gathering of clergymen in Boston, one of them, who had recently lost his wife, was asked at a dinner table by a guest unaware of the fact, "Doctor, did you bring your wife with you?" "Oh no," replied the doctor, unwilling to embarrass his questioner with explanations—"oh no; she has gone in quite another direction." When this reply was afterwards repeated to a New Yorker, he remarked with somewhat caustic humor: "The doctor was a little rough on Boston."

WATCHES!! JEWELRY!!

ROMAINE GOLD.

SO EXTENSIVELY WORN IN PARIS, was first discovered in 1875, by the celebrated French chemist, Monc. D. De Duingt, who manufactured it to jewelry, and for five years sold it to the leading jewelers of Paris for Solid Gold. In 1875, when his secret became known, ten of the manufacturing jewelers established a stock company, with a capital of $100,000.00 for the purpose of manufacturing Romaine Gold Jewelry and Watches. With this immense capital and the aid of improved machinery, they are enabled to produce all the latest patterns of jewelry at less than one-tenth the cost of solid gold, and of a quality and color which makes it impossible even for experts to detect it from the real gold.

We have secured the exclusive agency of the United States and Canada, for the sale of all goods manufactured from this metal, and in order to introduce them in the most speedy manner, have put up assorted sample lots as given below, which we will sell at one-tenth the retail value until January 1st, 1878. Read the list.
